

The End Of My Church Of Idolatry

“I shall kill My people for they refuse to obey Me, My son. Millions shall die with the latest pandemic. Mega churches shall be empty; their idolatrous worship shall be ended forever—I cannot stand it. Every Sunday they worship Me the false way—with guitars of electric origin. The sound of Satan shall be forever banished from My Church by destroying it—My people shall be few and far between. The practice of Rock Music is detestable in My ears—it is not the music of Heaven which they refuse to practice. They love Rock Music and will not stop; they cannot for they love their idolatry—the sound of Satan shall no longer be in My Church anymore, for I shall kill off My people who love it. Your LORD has spoken. Amen and amen.”
